Orri's message; Norway is now a NASF priority

Norway is a very important country for the future of Atlantic salmon. This is why NASF has given increased priority to its Norwegian work over the last five years.

Norway has some of the world's most wonderful salmon rivers. Some are still in good shape and provide wonderful fishing, such as the Alta, Lakselv, Orkla and Gaula. The state of others, like the Lærdal, the Driva and the Vosso, is dire.

NASF has heavily supported the great work of the river owners in the Trondheim fjord district in recent years and believes that without this magnificent joint effort the situation there would be completely different. Tremendous work will be needed to restore other Norwegian rivers and NASF fears that some once-mighty Norwegian rivers will never recover.

Norway and Scotland are now the only remaining countries with interceptory net fisheries for salmon. The Norwegian nets do not only take salmon destined for Norwegian rivers. Much of their catch would otherwise return to Russian, Finnish, Swedish and Danish rivers. In permitting this to take place, Norway is failing to observe the principles of the International Law of the Sea and it is a disastrous policy as far as Norway's own rural economy is concerned. NASF and its partners in many countries are working hard to persuade the Norwegian government to stop this destructive netting,.

Norway is the base for an evergrowing global aquaculture industry that causes continuing problems for wild fisheries wherever that work takes place. The industry must become more environmentally sustainable because it does great damage to wild salmonids in Canada, Scotland, Ireland, and Norway.

It is for these reasons that I have now established a Norwegian Foundation with the specific purpose of working to save Norway's wild salmon stocks. Last year NASF was honoured to receive a Goldman Award money for international conservation and we are giving a considerable portion of the money that goes with the award to this Norwegian foundation. A strong and dedicated Norwegian team has been assembled to run this new organisation. They need the fullest support that salmon anglers can give them. The first step you can take to help speed progress is to make generous bids at this year's auction!

Yours in Conservation,

Orri Vigfusson

FISHING OPPORTUNITIES

Fossen beat in Forra, Stjørdal (see next page)

Fantastic July 2009 fishing opportunity at the Osen River, "The Hidden Pearl"

Unique opportunity to fish the Osen river, wonderfully situated between Førde and Florø at the west coast of Norway, in a beautiful valley completely sheltered from roads, traffic and noise. In fact, the lower 2km of the river, the valley plus the lodge is at the buyer's disposal exclusively. The package includes fishing and superb full pension for 6 rods. 3 nights stay at the picturesque and beautifully restored Osen Farm for the period of Friday 24/7 1800hrs until Monday 27/7 1200hrs. Air connection to both Florø and Førde. Guide value: NOK 80 000.

Donor: Osen Gard www.osengard.no

Upper Namsen Fishing: Two rods in three days with accommodation and service at Vertshuset Grong!

Fishing for two rods for three days in season 2009, rotation between Fiskumfoss, Mediå – Fosslund and Mediå-Duun provide chances for a range of different pools and chance for large and small salmon. Stated simple, this is the best fly fishing available in Namsen, nothing less! This fishing comes with full service and board at the Vertshuset Grong, among many considered the best salmon hotel in Norway. Exact days to be agreed between the buyer and the donor during spring 2009. Guide Value NOK 40.000,-.

Donor: Upper Namsen Fishing/Jon Ivar Mo, www.uppernamsen.com

Mighty Gaulfossen ! Four days for four – six rods 15 – 19 July 2009

Gaulfossen is the most famous pool on Norway's best salmon river (if we look away from the Alta for a second)! While the best season in the Gaulfossen is June, the chances are still very good at this time, especially if you get some water. Every day many salmon comes through the pool, always providing new chances. This is a huge package suitable for 4 - 6 rods, including the well-equipped cabin on the river bank for self-catering. Boat as well as bank fishing. An excellent package for a group of eager anglers wanting to rule the fishery by themselves. A short introductory guiding is included, but if you want guides and boatmen you must pay for this in addition. Fishing starts at 1800 on 15 July and ends at noon 19 July. Guide value: NOK 35.000,-

Donor: Matthe J. M. Schouten

Orkla at Aunan – Classy, Undisturbed Fishing on the Best of the Upper River

Three days fishing for four rods with full service 30 July to 2 August 2009. This is prime season on the Upper Orkla, and as many noticed, late July and early August provided very good fishing in Orkla and Gaula in 2008. Former footballer Vegard Heggem has in just a few years established a salmon lodge with maybe the best reputation in all of Norway. There are numerous pools including the holding pools at Pollen and Igdhølen and a lot of space devoted to each rod. The lodge and restaurant is nothing less than superb. Guide value NOK 47.000,-

Donor: Aunan AS/Vegard Heggem, www.aunan.no

West Ranga – opening season on one of the stars in Iceland's Salmon Heaven One rod 5 - 8 July 2009

Early season fishing for four days 5 - 8 July 2009 overlooked by the volcano Hekla! One rod and full board and lodging on the fine lodge. The Ranga rivers on the south-west coast of Iceland is by far the best salmon fishing on Iceland in terms of catches, and 2008 was another record breaker. Due to a very successful stocking programme, fresh salmon pour into this river system from late June until September. This offer is a chance to experience the opening season on the West Ranga. The package can easily be combined with a tour to famous attractions in Iceland such as Thingvellir, Gullfoss and Geysirs. The rod can be shared or another can be bought at regular terms via the donor. Guide value: NOK 30.000,-

Donor: Angling Club Lax-a, www.lax-a.is

The Royal Dee at the Marcliffe with fishing at Banchory March – April 2009

Springtime is Deetime! We are delighted to again offer a peak season package on this wonderful river! Dee fishing always are popular at our auctions. Four Nights Bed and Full Scottish Breakfast starting 29 March 2009 with a la Carte Dinner on 2 Evenings. This is for 2 persons sharing a Twin/Double Room. Fishing: 2 Rods on “The Banchory Fishings” previously called “Banchory Lodge Fishings”. Fishing for 3 full days starting 30 March 2009. Packed lunches each day. Guide price: NOK 22.000,-

Kindly donated by: Stewart Spence and the Marcliffe Hotel and Spa, www.marcliffe.com

Norwegian Flyfisher’s Club Gaula – one rod for a full week at peak July season!

NFC has some of the most wonderful flywater for Atlantic salmon, with a very attractive rotation system including famous pools such as Bridge at Rognes, Renna pool and Tilseth. We are thrilled to offer one rod for 7 of the better days of the season; week 29, 2009, which starts 12 July and ends 19 July. In this part of the Gaula, the period from week 26 to 30 is normally when the fishing is at its best; with varied conditions and fish of all sizes inhabiting all pools of the river. We expect this to be one of the more attractive lots this year! This package is for one rod and comes with a single self catering room in a farm house near the beats you will fish. If space, another rod can be purchased from NFC, or the rod can be shared among two anglers. Guide price: NOK 25.000,-.

Stjørdal/Forra: Fossen beat week 32 2009

Probably one of the most charming and exciting beats for salmon fishing in all of Norway is the Fossen beat in the Forra tributary to the Stjørdal river. The Forra is the pristine and untouched part of the Stjørdal system, offering a flyfishing challenge for everyone. The Fossen beat where all the salmon has to stop is of course the best pools of the river. Exciting fishing on high as well as on low water. The fishing is suitable for 4 – 5 rods and comes with a very convenient self-catering cabin very close to the beat. Week 32 is normally a fine time as the salmon generally do not start to run the Forra in numbers until July. Guide price: NOK 18.000,-

Donor: Meraker Brug v/Per Hembre www.merakerbrug.no

Syrstad Spey Casting School – World Class Salmon Fishing Education!

Knut and Trond Syrstad are living legends in the world of salmon fly fishing and spey casting. Since their teens they have been acknowledged casters and anglers, and their casting school on the Orkla generally has a reputation for being the best of all. It is no downside that the school has access to some of the best beats on the Orkla! Full casting clinic for three people; four days full board and accommodation. Exact dates decided on after discussion between Syrstad and buyer. Guide value: NOK 20.000,-.

Donor: Knut and Trond Syrstad, www.syrstad.no

Exciting fishing on Gaula opening week 2009 – Horgøyen, Helgemo and Flaskehølen

Six days fishing for two rods including accommodation on three very interesting beats on the Gaula. Two days (48 hours) can be had on the beat Horgøyen, traditionally among the top-three beats on the river, especially in June. A further two days can be had at the beat Helgemo near Lundamo. In addition the beat Flaskehølen upstream at Kotsøy is available all week, a challenge early in June, but if the salmon are through the falls there is a good bet they will hang around in the Bottle Pool! You will fish with other rods but there are a fixed number of rods suitable for the beats. Accommodation is on Støren at the family run farm Voldøien gaard in high standard cabin. Self catering. Guide value: NOK 26.000,-

Donors: Knut Stav (Horgøyen), Leif Jansson (Bottle Pool) www.gaula.se and Eilif Peder Folstad (cabin).

Gaula Flyfishing Friends - one rod for one full August week, 2009

GFF have some of the most mouth-watering pools on the mighty Gaula. Say Kroken, Stadion or Sæther to any inclined Gaula fisher, and they will start telling stories of big fish and perfect flywater. Arne Flagestad and Winsnes Farm has offered a package with a full August week fishing (free of choice for the buyer as long as there are rods available), with excellent lodging and all meals at the Winsnes farm. Introductory guiding is included. August was very good on these pools in 2008 and the reductions in netting combined with the C&R breakthrough explains why! Guide value: NOK 16.000,-.

Donors: GFF v/Arne Flagestad and Jonas Hammarstedt and Winsnes Farm www.winsnes.info

Spring season at Em's Herrgård – two rods for two days, April 2009

The Em is probably the world's most renowned sea-trout fishing location. April is the peak season for the outgoing fish. At the same time you will experience the fantastic surroundings and the great history at the Herrgård. While birds arrive, and the spring flowers are in full blossom, the huge trout are biting! This offer includes two rods fishing for two days, exact dates to be agreed between Em and the buyer. Included is self catering lodging at the Herrgård for two nights. Guide value: NOK 10.000,-.

MSW Salmon on the Lakselv up north!

Lakselv has one of the highest average weights on their salmon in whole of Norway and you know what that mean... This package includes a guide with boat and free access to all open beats on the Lakselv for two anglers and three days. Miles of river combined with guide and boat will give you access to pools with few or no other fishers, and a good chance for a 20 + pound salmon! Surroundings are stunning, and a trip up here should be combined with fishing some of the nearby rivers as well. Accommodation in charming cabin. The donor will help organize transport to and from airport in Lakselv if needed. Guide value: NOK 12.000,-

Donor: Lakselva Grunneierlag www.lakselva.no

June at Polset in Orkla ! Two days for three rods!

Polseth is one of the better pools in Orkla, and we are extremely grateful to offer you two days starting at noon 8 June ending noon 10 June for a total of three rods in Polset. This is a really good chance for one of those silver-white 20 pounders that dominate the Orkla run at this time. Accommodation (self catering, meals can be purchased) at the nice hostel at Aunemo for three persons is included, as are introductory guiding on the beat. Guide value: NOK 18.000,-

Donor: Espen Flyvholm/ www.polset.no

Early start! Berby/Enningdal – 23 to 25 May 2009!

Enningdal in the very southeast corner of Norway is one of the few rivers opening 15 May and here is a chance to access this exciting fishery and stunning through this offer from the old royal property Berby Herregård. This is a package suitable for two rods and includes accommodation on the Herregård. Introductory guiding is included. Package runs from 23 May at noon until 25 May noon. Guide value: NOK 14.000,-

Donor: Berbylaksen AS - www.berbylaksen.no

Gem Combination on the Stjordal – Hembre and Einang Beats

Hembre and Einang are among the best beats on the Stjordal river. And we are pleased to offer 2 rods for two days at Hembre followed by two days at Einang, in week 24, 2009. Getting access to those two beats is difficult as mot clients keep their weeks from year to year. This is your chance to try those famous beats. Accommodation at Hembre Fishing Lodge is included, meals can be bought or self-catering. The buyer shall share the beats with other anglers but there are plenty space. Guide value: NOK 20 000

Oil Painting from Stryn!

The famous Stryn, with its demanding pools and currents, is famous for its big and strong salmon. Yet not as numerous as they once were, the painter managed to catch a 35 pound + salmon this summer and we assume it inspired the creation of this x by y cm oil painting! Sebastian is currently a student of Odd Nerdrum, and we leave it to the audience to reflect on if this adds or detracts to the value (HA-HA).
